Executive Summary

Company Overview

- Murray Energy Corporation (“Murray Energy”, “Murray” or the “Company”) is the largest privately-owned coal company in the United States<sup>1</sup> with annual production volumes of ~46 million tons supported by a ~2.0 billion<sup>2</sup> ton low-cost reserve base
- As of March 31, 2018, Murray operated twelve active mines<sup>3</sup> located in Northern Appalachia (“NAPP”), the Illinois Basin (“ILB”) and the Uintah Basin, as well as Colombia, South America
  - Additionally, Murray controls the GP of Foresight Energy LP which operates four active mines in ILB
- For the LTM period ended March 31, 2018, Murray generated revenues of ~$2 billion and Adjusted EBITDA of $492 million

Transaction Overview

- The Transaction: Murray is requesting that holders of Existing Term Loans participate in a proposed Term Loan Extension, and is announcing that certain holders of Existing 2L Notes have elected to participate in the Notes Exchange on a private basis
  - 1 Term Loan Extension: Murray is requesting existing holders amend and extend existing Term Loan B-2 and Term Loan B-3 (the “Existing Term Loans”) in order to, among other things, extend the maturities by 2.5 years to October 2022 (the “Term Loan Extension”)
  - 2 Notes Exchange: ~$670 million of existing 11.25% Second Lien Notes (the “Existing 2L Notes”) have elected to exchange on a private basis into New 1.5 Lien Exchange Notes (the “New 1.5L Notes”) at an exchange ratio of 74.0, with an extended maturity of 3 years to April 2024 and an annual coupon of 9% cash / 3% PIK (the “Notes Exchange”)
- In support of the Transaction, 61% in outstanding principal amount of Existing Term Loans and 71% of outstanding principal amount of 2L Notes have signed a Transaction Support Agreement (the “TSA”)<sup>4</sup>
- The Transaction offers participating investors a package of structural enhancements (see next page)

Note: All operational and financial metrics reflect the existing restricted group.

<sup>1</sup> Based on annual underground bituminous coal production. <sup>2</sup> Recoverable reserves on December 31, 2017 of 1.2 billion tons plus 820 million of recoverable tons controlled by Murray through leased properties, excluding Foresight and acquired Armstrong assets. <sup>3</sup> Includes two active mines acquired through transaction with Armstrong Energy, Inc. <sup>4</sup> The 71% of outstanding principal amount of 2L Notes excludes the ~$51 million of puttable 2L Notes that were issued in connection with the Armstrong Energy, Inc. transaction.

Key Transaction Benefits

The Transaction offers participating investors in both the Term Loan Extension and Notes Exchange a package of structural enhancements, while also improving the overall credit profile of the Company

Structural Enhancements for Participating Lenders

Improved Lien Priority

- Participating lenders will improve their lien priority over existing collateral. The new lien priority waterfall on existing non-ABL collateral will be (1) Extending Term Loans, (2) Non-Extending Term Loans, (3) 1.5L Notes, (4) 2L Notes

Additional Collateral & Guarantees

- Participating investors will be offered valuable additional collateral and guarantees incremental to the assets currently in the restricted group<sup>1</sup>

Murray South America, Inc.'s Colombian Assets

~$55-65mm
FY 2018E
Adj. EBITDA

Murray Kentucky Energy, Inc.'s Assets

~$25-35mm
Annualized Run-Rate
Adj. EBITDA

Murray Global Commodities, Inc.'s Equity Interest in Javelin

~$80-100mm
FY 2018E
Adj. EBITDA

Improved Credit Profile of the Company

Material Debt Reduction

- Discount capture achieved in the Notes Exchange
- Notes held by the Company's Unrestricted Subsidiaries will be retired and canceled

~$240mm
Debt Reduction<sup>2</sup>

~0.5x
Reduction in
Net Leverage<sup>2</sup>

Improved Cash Flow Profile

- Lower go forward debt quantum combined with lower cash interest on the 1.5L Exchange Notes results in significant annual cash interest savings

~$38mm
Annual
Cash Interest
Savings<sup>3</sup>

Extended Runway

- Up to ~$2.5 billion of debt will be extended by 2.5-3.0 years providing valuable time to continue to sustain focus on cash generating operations and initiatives

2.5 / 3 Years
Maturity
Extensions<sup>4</sup>

<sup>1</sup> For further details, see subsequent pages. <sup>2</sup> Includes ~$174 million of discount capture from the Notes Exchange, as well as an additional ~$66 million of 11.25% and 9.50% Second Lien Notes held by Unrestricted Subsidiaries to be retired and canceled. In the event that the ~$51 million of puttable 2L Notes that were issued in connection with the Armstrong Energy, Inc. transaction are put back to the Company and subsequently retired and canceled, the debt reduction and net leverage reduction will be ~$291 million and ~0.6x, respectively. <sup>3</sup> Includes ~$31 million of cash interest reduction from the Notes Exchange, as well as ~$7 million of cash interest reduction from retiring 11.25% and 9.50% Second Lien Notes held in Unrestricted Subsidiaries. Excludes PIK component. Total annual interest savings, inclusive of PIK, is ~$23 million. In the event that the ~$51 million of puttable 2L Notes that were issued in connection with the Armstrong Energy, Inc. transaction are put back to the Company and subsequently retired and canceled, the annual cash interest savings will be ~$44 million. <sup>4</sup> The Company is currently engaged in discussions with ABL lenders to address the upcoming ABL maturity.
